Forces acting on a box that is being pushed

W: the Earth pulls the box down.

N: the floor pushes the box up.

F: we push the box.

f: friction always acts against the motion.

If F = f, the net force is 0: the box moves at constant speed (or stays still).